HOWE FACULTY & STAFF LISTS FROM THE BEGINNING TO 1984

VOLUME I

Compiled by Raymond R. Kelly
Historian & Archivist

Faculty & Staff Lists at Howe: 1889-1984

Dr. Spalding was, of course, the entire faculty for the 1884-1885 school year. Lists of faculty & staff were not printed in Howe Grammar School catalogs until 1889. However, we do know that Clarence E. Brandt joined Dr. Spalding on the Howe faculty, probably sometime during the 1884-1885 school year, and apparently also taught the following year.

Group faculty & staff photographs were apparently not taken until the 1922-1923 school year, although the 1923 Tatler does contain individual photographs.

This book also contains individual photographs of the following personnel:

- Heads of the school
- Headmasters
- Principals of the Lower School
- Business Managers
- Other key personnel
- Personnel of long tenure.

In the case of personnel in leadership positions, their photographs are placed in the year in which they assumed the position. Photographs of other personnel are placed in the year in which they began their tenure.

Faculty and Staff of Howe Grammar School, 1884-1895, Howe School, 1895-1940; and Howe Military School, 1941-1985.

This scrapbook attempts to record the faculty and staff of Howe from its beginning in 1884. Unfortunately the first printed catalogs did contain listings of faculty-staff, probably because in the earliest years there were so few students that most of the academic program was handled by the Rector, Dr. Charles Nelson Spalding. Frank A. Ramsey, who attended Howe from 1884 to 1888, graduating in a class of two in 1888 wrote Colonel Burrett B. Bouton, Superintendent, in 1941 that Dr. Spalding was the sole teacher in that first year. However, this statement is contradicted by Grace Libey's Chronicles of Howe School: The First Fifty Years, in which she states that the Reverend Clarence E. Brandt taught during that first year. This seems to be borne out by the fact that Fr. Brandt returned Howe in 1906 as the principal speaker at the first Founders' Day. In his address he speaks of his association with Howe Grammar School in that first year. At any rate Dr. Spalding apparently had little assistance in academics during these early years.

An early publication, Howe School Topics, gives us the first listing of staff and faculty, that of the 1889-1890 school year. From that time forward records are available for most years. However, it was not until several years later that photographs of staff and faculty appeared in school publications.

Dr. Charles Nelson Spalding, Rector and Teacher, 1884-1895

As the members of the Senior Class have grown and matured, we have acquired the ability to discriminate between the qualities which differentiate one individual from another. We have learned that there are those who "give" and those who "take."

With this in mind, we dedicate our Tatler to Lester M. Tucker, one who, for many years, has "given" of his various talents to us, to those who have preceded us and who will continue to "give" to those who follow us.

Second row: Sgt. Lakin, Sgt. Deason, Capt. Wood, Capt. Paxton.

“Promotion Cometh Neither from the East . . .”

Ps. 75:7

And neither cometh promotion from this group of uniformed men, though they have a great deal to do with it. Major Merritt, as commandant of cadets, is the man who sees that all those little odd jobs, like policing up, are done, plus supervising discipline in the corps.

Major Stanford, Howe's PMST, led the school through one of the best government inspections in recent years, and proved to be one of the most considerate PMST's in several years.

Captain Paxton is tactical officer of "A" Company; Captain Wood is T.O. of "C". Sergeant Deason is T.O. of "B" and a military instructor. Sergeants Rundell and Rozer are military instructors. Captain Lakin is T.O. of "L" Company.

Coming to Howe in 1940 as a fourth-grader, Mr. Poljak began his long association with Howe Military School. While in Lower School he was named outstanding lower cadet and received the All Points Cup. Athletics has played a major role in his life. While at Howe, he participated in football, basketball, and baseball. He received the outstanding athletic cup, as well as having the honor of serving as captain of the 1948 football team.

In his upper school days Mr. Poljak was voted "most trustworthy" cadet. He was also commander of the Iron Guard, and president of his freshman and sophomore classes. Upon graduation in 1949, he achieved the rank of captain and was "C" Company Commander.

Mr. Poljak earned his B.S. degree from Ball State University and his M.S. degree from Indiana University. Between 1953 and 1956 he served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force.

In 1956 Mr. Poljak returned to Howe in the capacity of a math teacher and coach in the lower school. Moving to the teaching staff of the upper school in 1965 he has since taught math, been a summer camp counselor, coached varsity football and basketball. He is currently the varsity baseball coach and head of the math department. Among his other honors, the Howe baseball field was dedicated to him.

We, the class of 1976, would like to honor Mr. Poljak for his lasting devotion to Howe by dedicating this year's Tatler to him.

MRS. EMILY BERNGES

Dedication . . .

There is one word with which to describe Mrs. Emily Bernges. That word is DEDICATION.

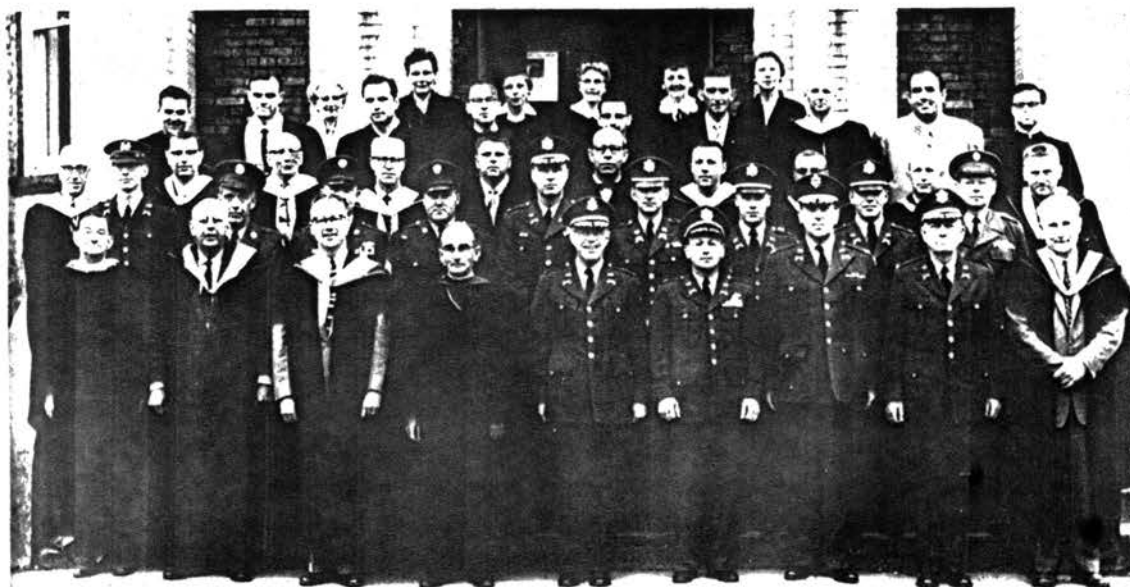

Over the decade that she has spent at Howe, Mrs. Emily Bernges has not been content with just improving cadet's minds. She has significantly affected the life of every cadet with whom she has come in contact. She has molded our personalities, shaped our ideals, and guided our futures.

So to you, Mrs. Emily Bernges, who have so long cherished the cadets, we, the Senior Class of 1969, offer the highest possible tribute of our love and appreciation. To you we dedicate the 1969 Tatter.

COLONEL ALTUS L. WOODS, JR.

P. M. S.: 1962-1966

Dedication . . .

At the close of his four years of dedicated work, we look at a man who has played a major role in the lives of all of us.

Through a stable example of bearing, honesty, and friendship he has given us invaluable help; he has influenced the growth of those fine characteristics that change youth into manhood.

In appreciation of his work, we, the Senior Class of 1966, pay the highest possible tribute.

To Colonel Altus L. Woods, Jr., we dedicate the 1966 Tatler.
